The AAI WASHINGTON DC METRO Chapter will present:

“COVERED CALL WRITING AND SELLING CASH-SECURED PUTS”

Discussed by:

Alan Ellman

President, The Blue Collar Investor Corp.

Learn the three essential skills required to sell call and put options in a low-risk manner, which allow you to either generate monthly cash flow or to purchase stocks at a discount. Alan Ellman will discuss stock selection, option selection and position management, including a unique multi-tiered option strategy that incorporates both covered call writing and put selling into one investment approach. All attendees will receive a free DVD.

YOU WILL LEARN

- The core principles related to covered calls and cash-secured puts
- How to calculate option-selling returns
- How to use stocks and ETFs you already own to generate income

BIO

Alan Ellman is president of The Blue Collar Investor Corporation and author of four best-selling books on the subject of covered call writing.

His fourth book, "Stock Investing For Students," is now required reading at the University of Maryland Honors College. His fifth publication, "Selling Cash-Secured Puts," has also become a best-seller. He has also produced several DVD educational programs on this subject.

Over the past few years, Ellman has been a frequent guest on financial forums such as the Options Industry Council's Wide World of Options. He is also a national speaker for The Money Show, the Stock Traders Expo and the American Association of Individual Investors. He writes weekly articles for his award-winning blog as well as various financial publications.

MISSION STATEMENT:

AAII local chapters, grassroots organizations led by volunteer AAI members, allow AAI to extend its mission "person to person" to individual investors in their own communities by programming meetings that provide unbiased investment education in a social context.

Opinions that may be expressed in this meeting announcement and at chapter presentations are not necessarily those of AAI, whose only intent is to provide a background for the understanding of investment theory and practice.
